9 3. In my capacity as Senior Corporate Counsel, I am familiar with certain
10 communications between Cisco employees and the law firm Fish & Richardson, P.C. and Kathi
11 Lutton, Esq., which are the subject of a subpoena issued to Richard Frenkel (request Nos. 1, 3, 4).
12 I also am familiar with certain work product prepared by Fish & Richardson, P.C. and Kathi
13 Lutton, Esq. on behalf of Cisco, which also is the subject of the subpoena (request Nos. 1, 3, 4).

14 4. Some or all of the testimony and material covered by these requests concerns
15 confidential communications between Cisco and its lawyers regarding legal advice sought on 16 behalf of Cisco for the purpose of protecting its legal rights. Accordingly, the requests seek to

22 litigation. Accordingly, the requests seek to compel testimony and material protected by the work
23 product rule, a protection that has not been waived.

24 6. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
